HISTORY OF THE TOURNAMENT

The CENTENNIAL BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT was conceived as part of Loyola's contribution to Canada's 100th birthday celebrations by Dr. Ed Enos, the Director of Physical Education and Athletics at the host institution. With all Canadians being encouraged to perpetuate the spirit of "Centennial Year" the college has continued to sponsor this international event on an annual basis. The Tournament has grown in stature each year and is now recognized as Canada's top holiday basketball event.
